
FUNERAL EXPENSES EXPLAINED

Funeral fees are often considered to be expensive although when you consider that we are here to provide you with a seven day a week service, 24 hours a day, expensive vehicles to transport the family to the funeral in comfort, and the equipment needed to enable the funeral to proceed, prices then become quite reasonable.

Our complete service includes the hearse to transport the deceased to the place of the funeral service and limousine for family members if desired. All necessary staff and ensuring that all administration and documentation is in order for the funeral to take place, collection from any address locally, a coffin designed to suit requirements of the family, viewing of loved ones in our chapels of rest and the service of fully trained and licensed funeral directors, before during and after the funeral.

It is not our policy to impose urgency or apply undue pressure on you or your family. It is important for many people to reflect the personality and character of the deceased within the arrangements, and this often requires time to do so.

- 1. Estimate and expenses - The estimate we provide sets out the services that we agree to supply, as well as an indication of the charges likely to be incurred at that time. Whilst we make every effort to ensure the accuracy of the estimate, the charges are liable to alteration particularly where third parties change their rates or charges. We may not know the amount of third-party charges at the time of making the arrangements, but we give you a best estimate of such charges. - 2. Payment arrangements - The funeral account is due for settlement within thirty days of the invoice being sent, unless one of our services which requires payment is required before the funeral takes place. Our standard funerals do not require fees to be paid to us in advance of the funeral taking place, the balance will fall due within thirty days of the invoice being sent. Our 'In House' and unattended cremations require payment in full before the cremation is booked. If you fail to settle the invoice by the due date we may charge you interest at a rate of 4% above our banks base rate. This will be calculated on a daily basis from the date the invoice became overdue. Please keep us informed of any problems you may encounter regarding payment of our invoice.
